Security Force Assistance Brigade (SFAB) Frequently Asked Questions (26 SEP 18)

4. How long do I have to be on station before I can volunteer for the SFAB?

- 1 Day however, CONUS Soldiers typically must serve 36 months on station prior to a CONUS to CONUS move, and OCONUS Soldiers must serve to their DEROS; however, waiver authority for CONUS time on station and OCONUS curtailments resides within HRC and may be considered when a Soldier volunteers and is found qualified for assignment to an SFAB. Contact your career branch in HRC to determine if a waiver may be considered.

5. Are there any incentives for assignment to the SFAB?

- AIP. Enlisted SFAB volunteers will receive a $5,000 lump sum Assignment Incentive Pay (AIP) as long as they are permanently assigned to a SFAB and serve in the unit for at least 12 months. Additionally, the Soldier must be in good standing and not involved in the UCMJ process (to include Article 15s or court-martial proceedings), investigations, and must meet Army standards for retention (to include Army Physical Fitness Test and Army Body Composition Program) at the time of approval. Once permanently assigned, volunteers must remain in good standing throughout the AIP tour.
- Promotion. The Army has created a SGT Special Promotion Category. Corporals (CPL) and Specialists (SPC) who have been boarded and are fully eligible for promotion will be awarded 799 points and promoted to the rank of SGT on the first day of the month following graduation of the Security Force Assistance Advisor Course (SFAAC).
- PME. The requirement for completion of Professional Military Education (PME) to attain pin-on eligibility for promotion to SGT through Master Sergeant (MSG) is suspended for Soldiers assigned or attached to a SFAB or to its supporting Security Force (SECFOR). The Soldiers must be otherwise fully qualified and meet or exceed a monthly cutoff score (to SGT/Staff Sergeant (SSG)) or sequence number (to Sergeant First Class (SFC)/MSG). Soldiers promoted under this exception will be prioritized for the next available PME training seat upon redeployment or when otherwise available.
- SRB. Enlisted Soldiers reenlisting may be entitled to a lump sum, flat-rate, SRB payment IAW Milper Message 18-156. The SFAB specific SRB is only authorized for Soldiers who are currently assigned in or on AI to an SFAB. Soldiers are required to successfully complete the Combat Advisor Training Course (CATC) at the Military Advisor Training Academy (MATA) and be awarded the SQI of '3'. Soldiers who have not yet completed this unit specific training are authorized to reenlist for a future training location specific SRB, but it will not be paid until the successful completion of CATC and the award of SQI '3' is authorized.

6. Who do we contact to volunteer for assignment to a SFAB?

7. What is the SFAB assessment?

- It is a 48 hour physically and mentally demanding objective and subjective assessment and selection process. Its purpose is to identify the best possible candidates. The objective assessments are based on MOS expertise, physical fitness, and moral, ethical and values based decisions. The subjective board process targets individual leader attributes and character through board proceedings and discussions. The board assesses the technical, tactical, ethical, and moral potential for the individual to serve in the SFAB.

8. How long is an assignment to the SFAB?

- The expectation is that a SFAB assignment will be approximately 36 months. However, based on career timelines and potential missions, Soldiers may spend as little as 24 months or as much as 48 months in the SFAB.

9. If I am accepted to the SFAB, will I PCS or TCS?

- If accepted to the SFAB, Soldiers will be placed on assignment and PCS to the SFAB.

10. If accepted, can I chose to leave my family at my losing installation and collect BAH at the losing installation rate?

 ALARACT 097/2016 lists situations that will allow a Soldier to leave their Family at the losing installation on a temporary basis. Soldiers who meet one of the categories and desire to do so must request a BAH waiver submitted through the chain of command.

11. Where will the SFABs be located?

- SFAB #1 is stationed at Fort Moore. SFAB #2 is at Fort Liberty. SFAB #3 is at Fort Cavazos. SFAB #4 will be at Fort Carson. SFAB #5 will be at JBLM.

12. What will the length of deployments be for the SFAB?

- The projected length of time for SFAB deployments is nine months. SFABs will deploy IAW decisions made by senior Army leadership.
- 13. Will an assignment to the SFAB count as my Key Developmental (KD) time as a SSG, SFC, or MSG?
  - Assignment to the SFAB as an Advisor will count as a broadening/developmental assignment.
  - For questions about KD time for personnel in support roles, contact your career branch.

14. Is an assignment to the SFAB good for my career?

Absolutely! While it is a volunteer force, it is still very highly selective. After a thorough selection and assessment process, individuals chosen as members of the SFAB should be considered to be above peers in their respective MOS and grade. Promotion statistics from the 2018 MSG Board were, 23% overall promoted, 61% of that was from 1 SFAB. 2018 SFC Board, 51% overall promoted, out of that 84% from 1 SFAB.

15. What will my role be in the SFAB?

- The primary advisor positions within each SFAB will typically be filled with senior NCOs. Junior NCOs serve primarily as secondary advisors. Those who do not serve on an advisor team will serve in support roles within their MOS.

16. Are there different types of SFAB?

- Potentially. The Army would like to build a combination of Infantry and Armor SFABs to provide flexibility based on mission requirements. Currently, the first two SFABs are Infantry centric. A future decision will determine the remaining types and number of types. In addition to SFAB brigades, the Army will be building two SFAB Divisional Headquarters and one SFAB Corps Headquarters.

17. What if my MOS or pay grade is not authorized in the SFAB? Can I still volunteer?

 You should stay in touch with the SFAB Recruitment Team to see if or when opportunities open up for you. Additionally, you should update your assignment preferences and volunteer status in the Assignment Satisfaction Key (ASK) at https://www.ask.army.mil/ask/. You will be contacted if subsequent SFABs allow for your particular MOS or grade.

18. After volunteering, what happens?

- After a Soldier contacts the SFAB Recruitment Team to volunteer for assignment to the SFAB, the following process will occur:
  - SFAB Recruitment Team will request a records review to ensure eligibility
  - A background screening will be conducted for derogatory information
  - Once determined eligible and a successful background screening conducted, your information will be provided to Assessment Team.
  - SFAB Recruiting Team will notify you and coordinate your TDY travel in DTS for the 2 day SFAB assessment.
  - Upon completion of the SFAB assessment, SFAB leadership will inform you as to whether you are accepted or not.
  - If accepted, SFAB leadership and you will determine an agreed upon report date for assignment to the SFAB.

Once both documents are complete, they can be scanned and emailed to the SFAB Recruitment Team at usarmy.liberty.forscom.mbx.sfac-recruiting-accessions-group@army.mil.
